

Identifying 21st Century Skills in the Context of Social Studies Lesson Plans:

Lesson Title: Drake's Circumnavigation

Directions: Use the checklist below to identify whether or not the lesson plan under evaluation has 21st century skill components and if so, which components are present. Make note of how the skill is addressed in the lesson plan. Use Lawrence K. Jones' Document "The Foundation Skills" to help you (available from: <http://www.careerkey.org/pdf/The%20Foundation%20Skills.pdf>).

Basic Skills

Reading (students are reading primary source accounts)

Writing

Mathematics (being able to find latitude and longitude requires mathematical ability)

Speaking

Listening

Thinking Skills

Creative Thinking

Problem-Solving Skills (Creating a Tour with GoogleEarth)

Decision Making Skills (budgeting, etc.)

Visualization (new monument)

People Skills (if modified to allow students to work in groups)

Social (working in groups)

Negotiation (working in pairs)

Leadership (working in pairs)

Teamwork (working in pairs)

Cultural Diversity

Personal Outcomes

Self-Esteem

Self-Management

Responsibility